Breakout Sessions

COURT ROOM TESTIMONY

David J. Drumheller, Deputy Attorney General, PA OAG

This training is designed to give police officers the tools they need to feel more at ease in the courtroom. The Rules of Criminal Procedure and Rules of Evidence are discussed and explained. In addition, the presenter will discuss prosecutor expectations of law enforcement witnesses, the differences between expert and lay witnesses, the importance of appropriate documentation of training and experience, the importance of appropriate documentation of case information, some common defense strategies and tactics, some common testimony pitfalls and how to avoid them, as well as witness credibility assessment, appropriate courtroom appearance and demeanor, and the importance of pre-trial preparation procedures.

Additionally, a brief overview of vehicle search and seizure will be provided with a focus on emerging issues and case law updates that affect your ability to obtain necessary evidence. Whether as a result of a traffic stop or other investigation, this portion of the instruction will give you the tools required to make sound determinations as to the proper procedure for vehicle searches.

DRUG FIELD TESTING CERTIFICATION

Chief John Goshert, Dauphin County D.A.'s Office

Officers will be certified in drug field testing. A separate certificate will be issued for this training segment.
